In This Packet:

- Triple Threat Livestock Expo & Northern Plains Livestock Show Information
- Triple Threat Livestock Expo & Northern Plains Livestock Show Schedule

Youth for the Quality Care of Animals Training

There will be Youth for the Quality Care of Animals Training on June 8 at 1 p.m. Youth participating in the South Dakota 4-H swine project must complete this training once in the 4-H year to be eligible to show at the South Dakota State Fair.

Method of Conduct

Parents, members, and volunteers must conduct themselves in a courteous, respectful manner, use appropriate language, exhibit good sportsmanship and act as positive role models.

- Youth participating in the livestock shows will be required to respect others' property and privacy rights, apply rules of safety to individuals, groups and property as well as accept personal responsibility for their behavior.
- Illegal behaviors including the possession or use of alcohol or illegal drugs and tobacco products; stolen goods; weapons and fireworks, sexual, physical or verbal abuse will not be tolerated.

Law enforcement may be called and illegal behaviors may result in citations or arrest. Consequences may include removal from participation in the event; restitution or repayment of damages; sanctions and/or participation in future local, state, regional or national 4-H events; loss of status as a 4-H member in good standing, etc.

Junior Point Show Rules and Regulations

Check-Ins and Weigh-Ins

All animals need to be checked-in and weighed-in by one of the two time lines to be entered in the show:

- Friday, June 8: 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Beef, Goat, Sheep, Swine
- Saturday, June 9: 7:00 to 8:00 a.m. Beef, Swine

Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI)

All animals including: beef, sheep, swine and meat goat must be accompanied by a CVI and shall have official identification listed on the CVI. Animals must be properly restrained to read official identification to avoid safety concerns for exhibitors, Triple Threat Livestock Expo staff, and assigned staff veterinarian. All animals entered at the exhibition shall be free from evidence of all contagious diseases such as ringworm, parasites, pinkeye, lump jaw, abscesses, club lamb fungus, and warts. The CVI will be retained by show management upon check in.

Note: If warts have been removed surgically the scars must be healed by the time of the exhibition.

ANIMALS MUST BE INSPECTED AND CVI'S MUST BE ISSUED, BOTH WITHIN 30 DAYS OF EXHIBITION.

Each CVI must:

- Be issued and signed by an accredited licensed veterinarian.
- Show name and address of owner or exhibitor (consignor).
- Show Triple Threat Livestock Expo or Northern Plains Livestock Show as consignee and destination.
- List each animal individually on the CVI.
- List official identification (steel tags, Scrapie ID, tattoos, or RFID tags) and accessory ID devices (4-H tags, FFA tags, etc.) which are correlated to official identification on the CVI.
- Show all required tests and results for that species.
- List import shipping permit number.
- List free of infectious or contagious diseases
- List from non-quarantined herds or flocks

NOTE: Each animal needs to have individual identification; however, it is acceptable to have several animals of the same species listed on one Certificate of Veterinarian Inspection. Animals that do not comply with identification methods and are not listed on the CVI will be denied entrance to the Triple Threat Livestock Expo.

Registration Papers

To be eligible for all Purebred or Registered Market or Breeding Shows (Beef, Breeding Sheep, and Swine), exhibitors are required to deliver a copy of the registration papers (in their name, farm name, family name, or sibling name) If the animal is leased, exhibitor will need to bring lease agreement and the registration papers of person the animal is leased from.

Show Rules

The Triple Threat Livestock Expo and Northern Plains Livestock Show will follow the rules and guidelines of the South Dakota Junior Point Show Association. Placing will be turned in and exhibitors will receive credit for their points earned. For more information on point show rules please visit <http://sdjps.com/rules.htm>
