

Successful communities recognize, tap and invest their resources — and do these things well. Together with communities and their citizens, SDSU Extension Community Development identifies and builds on the skills, assets and opportunities available to and inherent within those communities. Our goal is to strengthen community sustainability and vibrancy. Our programs provide research based knowledge and skills using processes, tools and techniques.

Developed Presentations, Projects and Programs

Growing Leaders SD

Small Business Beginnings

Horizons

Community Gardens Support

Farmer's Market Support

School-Youth Gardens Support

Food to Market Possibilities

Local Food Entrepreneur Development

The Great Community Book Read

Youth Voices

Marketing Hometown America

Ripple Effect Mapping

Stronger Economies Together

Community Hospitality Training

Motivating Volunteers

Leadership Styles

Appreciative Inquiry Training

Finding Hidden Assets in you Community

Meeting Planning and Parliamentary

Procedures

How to Facilitate a Meeting

Social Networking Do and Don't

Conflict Management and Resolution

Building Partnerships

Grant Writing

Writing Business Plans

iGrow.org

